

Warning to Job Seekers

The Company has received a number of enquiries relating to fraudulent recruitment activities conducted outside Macau by individuals impersonating as its staff. In some cases, these perpetrators have forged documents and solicited monetary payments from the public.

The Company solemnly declares that it will not solicit any form of payment from candidates in its recruitment and interview processes. Job seekers are advised to remain vigilant in order not to fall victim of criminal activities.

Please note that recruitmacau@shuntakgroup.com is the only official email address through which all Macau-based recruitment communications are channeled. The Company does not use, operate or authorise any other email addresses for recruitment purposes.

If you have questions or doubts, please contact us via email at info@shuntakgroup.com.
